

REACH

individualized services
for individualized needs

Is REACH a Good Fit For Your Family?

Common questions

- Does your child struggle planning and following through with assignments?
- Does your child typically miss assignment deadlines?
- Does your child have an IEP?
- Does your child receive accommodations at school?
- Has your child's teacher or school recommended that you seek outside support?
- Does your child have trouble focusing in school or on schoolwork?
- Is your child behind academically in reading and or math?
- Has your child been diagnosed with ADHD or a learning disability?
- Does your child struggle with emotions, friendships, managing behavior, or feelings?

Do you often...

- Look at different school options for your child?
- Feel like you can't find a school that services your child well?
- Feel like you don't know what the next step is?
- Think you should have done something sooner?
- Feel like your child is misunderstood?

Has your child...

- Historically struggled in school?
- Had psychological testing to determine if they have a learning difference?
- Struggled with self-esteem, confidence, depression, or feeling overwhelmed?

Does your child...

- Often feel exhausted and deflated after school?
- Often wonder why school is so hard or more effortful for them?
- Often have tutors?

Maybe you've heard...

- "He'll grow out of it in a few years."
- "If she could just calm her body, she'd be reading and writing in no time."
- "He's so smart. He just needs to apply himself."

If any of this resonates with you, REACH may be a good fit for your family!
We encourage you to follow this link to sign up for a free 30-minute call with us!